

ARE YOU A PHOTOGRAPHER AT HEART?

Have you come across situations or incidents that might constitute a delict?
Then this is your chance!

The Department of Private and Comparative Law is proud to host

A Delict Spotted'18

A photography competition for all third-year students of the Faculty of Law

This is what you have to do:

- Take a photograph of any situation/issue/incident that you come across in your day-to-day life that might constitute a delict.
- It can be on any topic related to delict, including:
 - Professional negligence
 - Invasion of personality rights
 - Sport injuries
 - Environment and delict
 - Occupier's liability and control of dangerous premises
- The photograph can be taken from a phone or a camera – only the quality matters!
- All photography submissions should be printed at 17" x 22"
- Ensure that all ethical and intellectual property standards are maintained in the taking and submitting of the photographs, including the consent of any third party being shown in the picture.
- Submission deadline: 12th of March, 2018

This is what you get:

- First, second and third places: medals and certificates
- The most popular photograph selected through a Facebook campaign
- 7 outstanding submissions receive merit certificates
- A fantastic opportunity to showcase your talents, and network!
- The exhibition will be held on 28th March 2018 at the Faculty premises.
