

Call for Student Volunteers:

Academic Event to Mark the

225th Anniversary of the Supreme Court of Sri Lanka

August, 2026

The Department of Public and International Law is convening an academic event to mark the 225th anniversary of the Supreme Court of Sri Lanka. This event will consist of a two-day academic event on the 31st of July and 1st of August 2026, preceded by a trilingual debating competition for university students. The organising committee invites student volunteers to join each of the subcommittees mentioned below and assist in organising this event.

This will be an excellent opportunity to be a part of a key milestone in the legal history of Sri Lanka while acquiring important knowledge, skills and experience that will make your life as a law student more meaningful.

Applications

- Undergraduates of the Faculty of Law may apply as volunteers.
- You may apply to volunteer by filling out the following Google Form before the 16th April 2026: <https://forms.gle/71ToyXuRbUb9yUKS9>
- You may indicate your preference to join a particular subcommittee. However, the organising committee will review your application and reserve the right to assign you to a different subcommittee based on the needs of each committee and the number of applicants.
- Students who apply to join the academic sub-committee are expected to be available from March 2026 to December 2026.
- Students who volunteer to join other subcommittees must be available from March 2026 to August 2026.

List of Subcommittees

- a. Academic Committee
- b. Finance Committee
- c. Administration Committee
- d. Student Activities Committee

If you require any further information or clarification, please contact Professor Dinesha Samararatne at dinesha@law.cmb.ac.lk, Ms Chaturika Akuregoda at chaturika@law.cmb.ac.lk or Mr. Ishan Arachchi at ishan@law.cmb.ac.lk.