

The Role of the Law in Development and Democracy

International Research Conference

(8-9 November 2024)

Submission Guidelines

1. The submission should be original, unpublished work not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.
2. The submission should be 2500 – 7000 in length, excluding references. Please use British English, Times New Roman font, 1.5 spacing with standard margins and pagination at the bottom right.
3. Two versions should be submitted in MS Word format as specified below:
 - a. With full details of the author. The file should be named as follows: [last name of author_shorttitle_date]. The name of the author and the email should appear centred under the title. An asterisked footnote should designate the author's position and brief acknowledgements if any.
 - b. Without any details of the author and fully anonymised. The file should be named as follows: [shorttitle_date].
4. The title should be centre-aligned, bold, Times New Roman 14-Point Font and in sentence case.
5. The short abstract should be 250 – 300 words in length and should summarize the core argument of the paper. It should be Times New Roman 12-Point Font and italicized.
6. Please follow the Oxford Standard for Citation of Legal Authorities (OSCOLA) for footnotes. Please provide a list of references at the end of the submission.
7. All abbreviations should be spelt out in the first instance, with the abbreviation following in brackets.
8. Use “per cent” rather than the symbol %.
9. The word “Article” should be capitalised, e.g., Article and Art.
10. Phrases/terms other than in the English language should be italicized and translation provided in parenthesis.
11. All authors should take the responsibility of the accuracy and clarity of language.
12. Please ensure you have read and complied with the submission guidelines before making your submission. The submission must be accompanied by a signed author declaration form available here (put a hyperlink to the document)
13. The final date for submissions is the 15th of July 2024
14. Submissions should be made at <http://app.law.cmb.ac.lk/> or to irc@law.cmb.ac.lk